WNYU RADIO

INTERNSHIP CLASS

Course# H56.1374 Call#70774

Wednesdays, 6:20-7:35pm

Room 1133, 721 Broadway, 11th floor.

1.0 – 4.0 credits, variable.

This course is a practicum on contemporary radio station operation and management, coupled with an understanding of how modern radio works, and where it might progress in the future.

The principle activity consists of working in positions assigned by station management to assist in the administrative, creative, and programming activities of radio station WNYU-FM.

In addition, there are meetings in which problems and progress are addressed, and in which we discuss WNYU-FM and the other radio stations in the New York area.
